Regulations for the Establishment of the European Union Research Center, College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University

Approved at the 156th College Affairs Meeting on September 15, 2025

Article 1
These Regulations are formulated in accordance with the Regulations on the Establishment and Management of Affiliated (Research) Centers of the College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University (hereinafter referred to as the "College").

Article 2
The College of International Affairs (hereinafter referred to as the "College") establishes the European Union Research Center (hereinafter referred to as the "Center") to cultivate talent in EU studies, promote professional development and research on EU-related issues, and facilitate academic cooperation with the Taiwan EU Center. These Regulations are established to govern the Center.

Article 3
The Center shall comprise scholars and experts from the College and from domestic and international institutions who conduct research on traditional and emerging issues related to the European Union, including politics, economics, diplomacy, security, and law.

Article 4
The Center shall establish a Standing Committee consisting of five to seven members, with the Center Director serving as an ex officio member. The Standing Committee shall meet at least once a year to deliberate on the Center's major affairs and provide advice on the implementation of the Center's activities and its principal areas of work.

Article 5
The Center shall have one Director responsible for promoting research and coordinating related administrative affairs. The Director shall be concurrently appointed from among the faculty of the College by the Dean of the College or a faculty member designated by the Dean.

Article 6
As required by its operations, the Center Director may appoint an Executive Director and research personnel to assist with the administration and promotion of the Center's activities.

Article 7
The Center's principal activities shall include organizing academic conferences and establishing academic research and exchange partnerships with government agencies, domestic and international academic institutions, juridical persons, and relevant non-governmental organizations.

Article 8
Matters not provided for in these Regulations shall be governed by the Regulations on the Establishment and Management of Affiliated (Research) Centers of the College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University.

Article 9
These Regulations shall take effect upon approval by the College Affairs Meeting. The same procedure shall apply to any amendments.
