Achievements and Future Work Plan

I. Achievements of the Current Academic Year

(1) Shinzo Abe Research Center Consensus Luncheon

On May 24, 2025, the Center held the "Shinzo Abe Research Center Consensus Luncheon," officially announcing the launch of academic research centered on the strategic thought of former Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe.

Approximately 120 participants from Taiwan and Japan's government, business, and academic sectors attended the luncheon. Akira Amari, who previously served as Japan's Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry under the Abe administration, and Sanae Takaichi, who served as Minister of State for Economic Security, were invited to deliver remarks online.

(2) Corporate and Foundation Donations

The Center received sponsorships and donations totaling NT$5 million from companies including Sinyi Realty, Fortune Electric, and Jinnian, as well as the Tu Wan-Chuan Foundation.

(3) Ministry of Education Program

The Center was awarded the Ministry of Education's "Taiwan–Japan Future Higher Education Talent Co-Creation Program."

II. Work Plan for the Next Academic Year

(1) Taiwan–Japan Technology Dialogue 2025

On September 20, 2025, the Center will jointly organize the international forum "Taiwan–Japan Technology Dialogue 2025: Taiwan–Japan Technological Innovation and Supply Chain Cooperation in the Age of AI" with the Taiwan Institute of Japanese Studies.

The forum is expected to attract approximately 250 participants.

(2) Establishment Ceremony and Roundtable Forum

On September 21, 2025, the Center will hold the Establishment Ceremony of the Shinzo Abe Research Center, National Chengchi University, together with the roundtable forum "Taiwan–Japan Relations in a New Era."

Approximately 200 participants are expected to attend.

(3) ROK–Japan–Taiwan Economic Security Seminar

In mid-November 2025, the Center will collaborate with the Korea Institute for International Economic Policy (KIEP) and the College of International Relations, Ritsumeikan University, to organize the "ROK–Japan–Taiwan Economic Security Seminar."

Approximately 120 participants are expected to attend.

(4) First Shinzo Abe Academic Forum

In April 2026, the Center will organize the First Shinzo Abe Academic Forum.

III. Other Activities

The Center will implement the first phase of the "Taiwan–Japan Future Higher Education Talent Co-Creation Program" and invite distinguished experts from Taiwan and abroad to serve as advisors to the Center and assist in promoting its development.
