Organizational Charter of the Center for Global Military Strategy and Defense Policy, College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University

Approved at the 109th College Affairs Meeting on March 18, 2019

Article 1
This Charter is formulated in accordance with the Regulations on the Establishment and Management of Research Centers (Institutes) of the College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University.

Article 2
The Center for Global Military Strategy and Defense Policy, College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University (hereinafter referred to as the "Center"; English name: Center for Global Military Strategy and Defense Policy) is established to promote research on global military strategy and defense policy and to foster academic exchange and cooperation in military, defense, security, and related fields at the international, cross-strait, and domestic levels.

Article 3

1. The Center shall establish a Standing Committee consisting of seven members, including faculty and research personnel of the University and external experts and scholars. At least four members shall be full-time faculty members of the College of International Affairs. The Center Director and the First Deputy Director shall serve as ex officio members. The Dean of the College of International Affairs shall appoint the members of the first Standing Committee.
2. The Standing Committee shall meet at least once a year to deliberate on the Center's major affairs, provide advice on the implementation of the Center's activities and its principal areas of work, and serve in an advisory capacity.
3. Members of each Standing Committee shall serve a two-year term and shall be automatically reappointed upon expiration of their terms, unless they resign, are removed, or become unable to exercise their duties.
4. A member may be removed by resolution of the Standing Committee. If a member resigns, is removed, or becomes unable to exercise their duties, the Standing Committee shall convene to select a suitable replacement. Additional members shall be elected at a meeting of the Standing Committee.

5. The Chair of the Standing Committee shall be elected by and from among its members. The Dean of the College of International Affairs shall chair the first meeting.
6. When the Standing Committee is not in session, its Chair shall represent the Center externally and make decisions on major matters concerning the Center.
7. Members of the Standing Committee shall serve without remuneration.

Article 4
The Center shall have one Director, one or two Deputy Directors, and one Secretary-General, each serving a two-year term. All shall hold at least the rank of Assistant Professor or Assistant Research Fellow, as recognized by the Ministry of Education. Candidates shall be nominated by the Chair of the Standing Committee and approved by the Standing Committee.

The Center Director shall oversee all affairs of the Center, while the Deputy Director(s) shall assist the Director in handling the Center's affairs.

Article 5
The Center may establish an Advisory Committee of up to fifteen members. Members shall serve two-year terms without remuneration and shall be appointed by the Center Director, subject to confirmation by the Standing Committee.

The Advisory Committee may have one Convener and one Deputy Convener, both elected by and from among its members.

Article 6
The Center shall establish a Research Division and a Publicity and Exchange Division, operated by full-time and part-time personnel. The Research Division shall be responsible for planning and implementing research projects, while the Publicity and Exchange Division shall be responsible for planning and implementing exchange activities.

Article 7
This Charter shall take effect upon approval by the College Affairs Meeting. The same procedure shall apply to any amendments.
